

London Cares Job Posting: Manager of Homeless Response Services

Did you know that more than 250 Londoners are homeless on any given night?

We are London Cares, an adaptable and forward-thinking organization who believes housing is a human right. We won't stop until everyone in our city has safe, permanent and appropriate housing. Using a Housing First approach, we believe homelessness is a problem that can be solved.

Join our resilient, tenacious and spirited team today and help us achieve our goal!

London Cares is seeking a Manager of Homeless Response Services.

With the Executive Director, you will set deliverables for our Housing Stability and Outreach programs and see those plans through implementation, data collection, reporting and evaluation. We will count on you to assess staff knowledge and skills and develop professional development opportunities based on need and Housing First best practices.

You will select, train and supervise our Team Lead positions and you will also support the Team Leads by assisting with the hiring, onboarding and supporting all of our frontline positions. As a thoughtful and strategic leader with a calming presence, you will play an integral role in assessing and responding to a variety of situations and that involve our participants, our partners and other community stakeholders.

This position is a valued and contributing member of London Cares' Leadership Team. You will also participate in the work of the London Homeless Prevention System as a representative of London Cares.

This is a full-time position, scheduled Monday to Friday with a rotating on-call schedule. Our compensation package includes a competitive salary, health care benefits and 3 weeks of vacation.

If you are passionate about London becoming a community in which every person thrives and you want to leave a lasting mark on an organization, this is a great opportunity for you!

You will be an excellent candidate for the Manager of Homeless Response Services role if you have some or all of the following:

- Degree in Social Services field.
- 5 years of supervisory experience working in a Housing First program
- Experience with program and service oversight and delivery.
- Knowledge of relevant local community resources is preferred.

All of our employees must be able to provide a clear police vulnerable sector record check.
